Seine-et-Marne District Fire and Rescue Department SDIS 77

Gurcy-le-Châtel,  FranceWebsite Email

About the center

The Seine-et-Marne district Fire and Rescue Department is a public agency in charge of firefighting missions. The department also carries out various rescue missions with other agencies. Due to the wide range of different environments and economic activities within its area of responsibility, the fire and rescue department hosts many specialized units (urban search and rescue, divers, HAZMAT teams, etc.). A network of 61 fire stations enables the department to respond quickly on all its area. The Fire and Rescue department is endowed with an annual budget of €170,000,000. The 1300 professional and 3000 volunteer firefighters carry out more than 110,000 rescue missions each year. The training centre is in charge of the training of all firefighters (professional or volunteers) as well as administration and support personnel. It also provide CBRN training for its own specialized units and other multidisciplinary agencies.
